with over thirty tales in this collection i agonised over which of them should be the cover story however the bleak solitude of those storm tossed light towers often built off some wild and windswept rocky coast has always fascinated me and so i chose the drama of the sea with wreckers even the most elevated families seem to have a black sheep who does not conform and in twice loved a wayward young son is to be disowned and banished forever in the curse of khartoum a despised mis fit goes off at a tangent with surprising results for everyone concerned things are rarely as black and white or as straightforward as they seem and i hope these little tales will show that nothing in life should be taken for granted or at face value i leave you to decide if you think i am right h r book reviews online publishedbestsellers website
