an upper level introduction to the christian doctrine of the church this book is a rigorous comprehensive introduction to the doctrine of the church by taking the tack of walking readers through the internal logic of ecclesiology rather than simply offering a compendium of perspectives on each issue that arises the authors seek to teach and model thinking theologically with the grain of scripture and ecclesial reflection about the church the chapters are peppered with two to three excurses per chapter which consider a particularly pertinent issue that arises from the doctrine s development e g the move from jesus to the church schism and the rise of denominations sacramental mediation or contemporary concerns e g the question of other religions contemporary ecumenical questions the emerging church while the overall tone and content of the book articulate and invite discussion on the problematics of ecclesiology these excurses will provide ample opportunity to examine and where appropriate untangle ecclesiological knots continuum s guides for the perplexed are clear concise and accessible introductions to thinkers writers and subjects that students and readers can find especially challenging or indeed downright bewildering concentrating specifically on what it is that makes the subject difficult to grasp these books explain and explore key themes and ideas guiding the reader towards a thorough understanding of demanding material

what should a church do look at your church s calendar and you will learn something of its mission but how do you know it s the mission jesus gave in the life of the church joe thorn explains the mission of the church and the three rhythms for fulfilling it the result is a simple memorable model for church life and ministry grounded in scripture and aligned with historic practices useful for training in membership class discipleship groups and elder boards and even for devotional reading the life of the church is at once theological practical and experiential readers will not simply be informed but led to a deeper conviction about their role in the body of christ pastors will be equipped to refocus their ministries and christians to fulfill their purpose be and make disciples if you wonder what it means to be saved into a body of believers why the various parts of a worship service matter and how to engage in the world as a citizen of heaven then the life of the church is for you it answers this critical question why does the church exist and how does it shape my life the latest volume in gabriel fackre s christian story finds the dedicated ecumenist attempting to examine the connections or lack thereof between worldwide ecumenical progress and the character of local churches as he observes them in twenty first century america drawing from his own fifty year experience in the church as pastor teacher and parishioner fackre breaks open the myth of the church experience and exposes the reality of modern worship on a local level the church is rich in insight and fertile in its range of suggestions most of them aimed at pastors and aspiring pastors the men and women who will carry the teachings of the church its kerygma into the next generation and the ones that follow in the life and way for the practice of the church life witness lee speaks not only of our need to know christ but also of our need to receive a vision of the church his body enjoying christ as life will lead us into the proper practice of the church life in the proper church life we all live and move as members of the body guard the genuine ground of oneness and experience christ in order to present his riches in the meetings for the building up of his body the church in the house a return to simplicity the most rapid expansion of christianity in history took place in the first two hundred fifty years of the church s history until recently something has been happening for the past twenty five years in china that is growing even faster what is remarkable is that both of

as the protestant reformers did so twenty first century christians also recognize the need to distinguish between the true and false church thus they find themselves looking closely at the modern church to determine whether it is a true and faithful church today s christians know that proper criteria are necessary to discern the true church the most common criteria wrote john calvin are that the word of god is rightly preached and heard and that the sacraments are administered according to christ s institution moreover martin luther said that suffering is a telltale sign of god s people while anabaptist and reformed christians included discipline among the distinguishing marks of the church these standards take on particular poignancy today the global church continues to live under severe persecution and the american church characterized by a lack of discipline has been wounded by its own sins of chasing sex and power in this collection of essays first given at annual meetings of the evangelical theological society the authors take time to reflect on the reformational marks of the church in order to help reform christ s bride with contributions from edward w klink iii duane litfin j stephen yuille j v fesco keith d stanglin greg cochran jeremy m kimble guy waters justin l mclendon how christians can rediscover the beauty and glory of the church dear precious lovely the bible describes the church in extraordinary ways even using beautiful poetry and metaphors how does this compare to how christians today describe the church unfortunately many believers focus more on its mission structure or specific programs than on its inherent beauty it s time to spark a renewed affection for the church in the loveliest place dustin benge urges christians to see the holy assembly of god s redeemed people in all its eternal beauty he explains what makes the church lovely including the trinitarian relationship worship service and gospel proclamation for those who have never learned to view the church as god sees it or have become disillusioned by its flaws this book is a reminder that the corporate gathering of believers is a reflection of god s indescribable beauty this is the third book in the union series which invites readers to experience deeper enjoyment of god through four interconnected values delighting in god growing in christ serving the church and blessing the world part of the union series inviting readers to experience deeper enjoyment of god other volumes include rejoice and tremble and deeper concise version also available the loveliest place is the full version of why should we love the local church looks beyond methodology focuses on the beauty not just the biblical function of the church a revised edition of this classic work by c norman kraus key material from another influential book the authentic witness is incorporated and a new chapter is added repeatedly kraus stresses the key point the good news of the gospel is not that all will be well in the future the good news is that the spirit of god is among us now he asks the church to become a dynamic god movement by opening itself to this now present spirit

this is the fifth book in the a minute in the church series it is filled with one minute explanations of some basic elements of the catholic faith generations of catholics have grown up knowing very little about their faith even the most basic things a minute in the church back to the basics covers the ten commandments the seven sacraments the seven deadly sins the precepts of the church and much more just like athletes constantly practice the basics of their sport so should the faithful now you can do it in a minute with a minute in the church back to the basics skim the book of acts and you ll find a church that s bold energetic empowered unstoppable a church in fact that looks nothing like the one we have today little wonder so many believers jump from congregation to congregation searching in vain for the real thing in the church ken hutcherson reveals how god s original intention for his church has been distorted under stifling layers of tradition denominationalism racism and fear only when we strip away those layers will we discover god s unchanging heart for the church and his unchanging will for us to be a people of truth of power of reconciliation and of love the ordination of women has been one of the most pressing and passionately debated issues within the church in recent years in this volume based on the prestigious 1995 didsbury lectures r t france explores several important questions of biblical interpretation raised by the serious disagreements among christians over the nature of women s ministry france primarily focuses on the issues as they are manifest in evangelical circles where appeal is made instinctively to the authority of scripture he challenges readers to think through what it means to claim that our theology and practice are biblical his insightful arguments help christians move beyond the seeming impasse over the role of women in church ministry one of the worst things of being a christian is to walk a straight line doing the best you can to be a good follower of jesus you don t commit adultery you don t steal nor do you lie and you love god with all your heart spirit soul and body many christians dedicate a lot of time and devotion to the ministry we are attending then one day we are listening to a person or a group of people s conversation or a minister teaching and then we realize there are some things we are missing what we heard intrigues our interest because we are already hungering and thirsting after god s word we realize this because the spirit of god quickens and speaks to our spirit usually it is something concerning our salvation god begins to tug at us through the word and we begin meeting other christians talking about the same subject god is dealing with us about the thing we mostly begin to deal with is facing the truth that we weren t walking in the fullness of christ jesus then having to make the decision to leave our friends family other christian brothers and sisters and most of all the church we re highly devoted to so we may attend your newly found church that is more in depth of god s word worship and at liberty in the praising of god so i wrote this book not to judge or to say i am more righteous than others not to say i am all right and they are wrong the bible tells us not to judge anything before the coming day of the lord i wrote this book after much research to enlighten those who read it of the history that is mostly forgotten hidden or changed by catholicism to fulfill their purpose of dominance to control not only christian history but also the history of the world there are even words and scriptures that have been modified to implement their teachings and beliefs i can t even begin to write all the modifications of church history according to catholicism that modified the course of history but in this book i ensure you there are important fragments of church history i ve abstracted to intrigue your interest remember only truth can make you free and ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free john 8 32 bishop william h martin author of this book the church in the church pastor of christian faith fellowship temple ozark al 36360 334 733 3085
